

Adult Support & Protection Training Course

This three-hour course equips those working with vulnerable adults with an introduction to adult support and protection. It covers The Adult Support & Protection Act (Scotland) 2007, the SSSC Codes of Practice and National Care Standards in relation to protecting those who are vulnerable.

The course explores the 9 main categories of harm and abuse; looking at indicators, signs, or symptoms of abuse that carers may witness during their work.

Aiming to instil confidence in carers, this course clarifies exactly what needs to be done if harm is disclosed or witnessed.

A range of learning techniques are used, including group discussions, videos and reflection on real life scenarios. This course is mandatory for those working with vulnerable adults.

Run by our experienced Trainers, this course provides evidence for future Level 2 and 3 SVQ qualifications in Social Services and Health Care Awards, personal development goals and meets all sector specific requirements.

Who should attend?

Home Care Workers, Care Assistants, Care Workers, Senior Carers, Coordinators and Support Workers.
